End date: 6 Jun 2019, 17:30

No of Classes: 4

Week Days: Monday

Course Description

This cross-phase learning module is delivered under license to e-PD from The Key and provides a comprehensive quality assured toolkit for practitioners, delivered in four twilight sessions:

- Rethinking differentiation: defining differentiation and exploring practice
- Strategies for effectively differentiating lesson activities
- Differentiated questioning: techniques to help you tailor and target your questions
- Maximising the impact of feedback for all learners.

The learning module is divided into four 90 minute sessions over the academic year to provide challenge and reflection, and includes learning objectives and intended outcomes at each level.

Course Leader

The course leader is Amanda Wright, Director of Humanities, Specialist Leader of Education and Exam Board Marker, with a cross-phase understanding and intervention experience in the primary sector.
