All the materials can be easily downloaded, edited, customised and delivered. They include:

- Facilitator Briefing Notes – providing step-by-step guidance to deliver each session
- Presentation Slides – key concepts, theory & research
- Case Studies - real life practical examples
- Videos and Multi-Media Content – to explain concepts
- Practical Activities and Tasks – to ensure learning is embedded

When can I start this service?

This service will be available to schools from 1st September each year, when the e-PD subscription is also due. Should you return this form and your payment before 1st September 2018, your membership will start for free from the date your payment is processed until 1st September.
